About Hungary

The stunningly beautiful European nation of Hungary has a total land area of 93,033 square km. It is basically a landlocked nation and strategically located in Central Europe. The nation is 1,013 km in area and measures just 524 kilometers from east to west & 250 kilometers from north to south.

The nation shares its borders with Romania, Serbia, Slovakia, Ukraine, Croatia, and Austria, besides Slovenia. By and large, Hungary is flat with no high mountains in its northern regions. The famous, also the biggest lake in Central Europe, Lake Balaton, is situated in Hungary.

Budapest is the capital city, also the country's largest city. The same city straddles the renowned River Danube, and is quite rich in history and culture even as it is also celebrated for its restorative springs.

Roughly, 13.147 million Hungarians are spread across the world today, and 10.5 million of them reside in the present Hungary. The nation has a national assembly, the parliament, and voters, select by ballot, its 386 members every 4 years.

Since the beginning of the 1980s, the country has significantly lost 19.9% of its total population stood at roughly 10,065,000, 18,000 less than what the same had been just 1 year before. Much like many European nations, the populace of the aged is on the rise & that of kids on the decline across the country.

The people of Hungary, called Hungarians, belong to an ethnic faction who converse in the Hungarian language even while they are principally linked with Hungary. Hungarian is not an Indo-European language in the world.

Significantly, prior to the World War II, German happened to be the most crucial and commonly employed second language. All through the socialist era, Russian was binding in the national schools & universities. Now English has emerged as the most treasured second language, chiefly for younger public with entrepreneurial aspirations, and in the academic world, the sciences, and different services & businesses.

Cost of Doing Business in Hungary

Hungary has made the most of its more favourable geographical location to fruitfully emerge as an industrialized, and logistics, not to mention services powerhouse even as the cost of doing business in Hungary is neither too high nor exorbitant.

The overall business opportunities across the nation are growing even as these have been radically augmented in recent years, thanks to the unexpected swell of global organizations in the nation.

While a reduction in unemployment has been noted, a shortage of specifically trained people in industries, comprising the metallurgy, car manufacturing & construction business has been also seen. Almost 33% of almost every business done in the nation is carried in Budapest. Given this, if you are eager to launch a company in Hungary, you will not get a better option than the capital.

Now let's take a look at the cost of doing business in Hungary, these heads!

Tax Benefits

At only 10%, the nation has possibly the lowest corporate tax rate across the whole Europe, and this makes it pretty sensible to shift proceeds to the many Hungarian subsidiaries.

Trained, Committed Individuals

Its qualified, creative manpower is accessible for just 33% of the cost of top Western European parts. The administration's attempts to boost employment have for noninterventionist employment rules & regulations. Robust employer rights make it quite simple to use only those requires. Against this backdrop, the labour market conditions of Hungary are appreciably more flexible and priced, in relation to those in Western Europe.

Not Too High Costs

The prices of real estate have fallen by close to 30% since 2008 even as the costs of business services are incredibly low, vis-à-vis Western Europe.

The overall cost of doing business in Hungary is not too high even as the nation has taken advantage of its just right geographical setting to emerge as a manufacturing & besides services powerhouse.

Cost of Living in Hungary

The cost of living in Hungary may not be very low priced in every manner, but the country, overall, is a practically good value for those who wish to enjoy a good life without spending much in Europe. People shifting to Budapest, the capital, from a comparable sized European city, North America, or for that matter Australia, may reduce their operating costs by as much as 50% even as the remaining regions of Hungary cost comparatively less.

Now let's take a look at the cost of living in Hungary under these heads!

Accommodation

The occupants give their rent expenses in 100s, and not 1000s, and one can easily find a single person or pair shelling out more than $500 every month, even in Budapest. When one moves into comparatively smaller towns, he can get a big home for that.

Healthcare

In Hungary, the medical care is overall good even while it is a bit expensive. Against the backdrop of medical care becoming a common thing in several places across the globe, Hungary has joined the party with enthusiasm. Several people from Europe are performing surgery here and benefit from nice medical care at a concession.

Food & Drink

One may usually have an incredibly fine dinner complete with wine for just $15 in the country. In case one enjoys at more modest places, a soup will cost maybe a dollar, and food items somewhere between $3 and $7.

Transportation

Getting around the nation is moderately not expensive by train or bus when one wishes to go out of town. A journey of two hours one will become poorer by roughly $10. Seniors & young kids do not have to pay anything, and they take a trip free.

Though the cost of living in Hungary may not be awfully inexpensive in every manner, the nation, by and large, is a fairly good value for those who wish to get pleasure out of life, without having to spend much in Europe.

Main Industries

The automotive segment is a top industry of the nation even as it produces nearly 21% of its total exports. Over 1000 firms, hiring a combined total of 100,000 persons, are currently in the business, in the field. And four leading automotive Original Equipment Manufacturers, namely, Audi, Suzuki, Daimler, and Opel have manufacturing facilities in the nation.

The electronics business is yet another major industrial sector in the nation, even as it is responsible for 22% of the country's whole manufacturing. It is the biggest electronics maker in the CEE region, and is behind 26% of the entire regional manufacture. Close to 12,000 persons are presently working in the segment.

In the field of Pharmaceuticals & Medical Technology Hungary has a fairly good presence. Actually, its pharmaceutical business is a top and highly organized and flourishing division of the country, the most developed pharmaceutical & biotechnology segments in the entire Eastern & Central Europe, the region proffers a perfect launch pad for the life science firms keen to grow in the advanced states of the Balkan region, and also the more or less Asian & Eastern European markets.

Even in the food industry Hungary's presence is rather remarkable. Despite the fact that the industry has somewhat declined, through the decade gone by, the business of food processing continues to be a key subdivision of the Hungarian economy. The food industry's balance. The country is the sole net exporter of agricultural & food goods in the entire CEE area. And, the business produces 6% of the nation's total exports.

The ICT segment comprising telecommunication services, IT outsourcing, and software and hardware manufacturing is another vital cog, and one of the main businesses of the Hungarian economy. The ICT segment is responsible for 10% or more of the whole Hungarian GDP even as it hires plus 100,000 persons. During the past some years, the Hungarian ICT market has developed speedily, and the field includes the manufacturing of computer assembly.

The automotive division is a leading industry of the country even while it is 21% of its entire exports.

Hungary Immigration Scheme with a Difference!

Hungary, the former eastern bloc country was a trendsetter even in the communist Soviet era, has not faded its reputation and the government has continued policies of making Hungarian economy a truly innovative phenomenon. The authorities had converted the economy of this country into a true mix of market socialism in 1960. Owing to that trend, the Hungary was quick to convert its economy from a centrally planned market based economic system. Now the government of this central European nation has come up with yet another outstanding scheme called " The Residency Bond Program" to facilitate immigration on a permanent basis.

Hungary Residency Program: Overview

The Hungarian Investment Immigration Program, " The Residency Bond Program" is all the difference and it is pulling in lot of attention of the willing investors to be exact. This distinct kind of scheme was incorporated in 2012 and is laden with multiple advantages that other contemporary investment schemes of other global locations may not be able to offer.

Some of the scope and salient features of the Residency Bond Program are

- < The policy is intended to attract willing investors of countries other than nationals of European Union, i.e. EU. The authorities would prioritize selection of the investors from countries other than EU.
- < The government is offering permanent residential permit to the willing investing individuals in lieu of infusion of funds in Special Hungarian Government Bonds that have a year lock in period. The investment does not yield any interest.
- < After the lock in period, the investment can be liquidated and the investors would be able to retain their permanent residential status in the country.
- < The applicants gaining entry into the country would have open access to Schengen treaty zone by virtue of Hungary being a full signatory of the Schengen treaty.
- < The new entrants would also have unimpeded access to vast market of EU.
- < The spouse and children under the age of 18 years would be included in the application without any extra charges.
- < This program has NO specific conditions connected to Language, Age, Work experience and requirement for furnishing/substantiating proofs of source of money or any other tax return or auditor reports
- < In addition, procurement of landed property or establishment of companies is not mandatory under the Hungarian Investment Immigration Program.

Hungary Residency Program: Progress

The popularity of this policy has risen manifold and in the period from June 2013 till August 2014 interested investors have procured over 1100 Residency Bonds. The initial success has encouraged the Hungarian authorities to raise the threshold minimum investment by Euro 60,000 from January 2015.
